

Haiku Ramble Winners 2023

Elementary:

Aaliyah Sockyma

Beautiful sunset,
Bright colors of orange and pink,
Lays the day to rest.

Justice Antone

All kinds of Flowers,
Different colors and shapes,
Very Beautiful.

Autumn Gonzalez

Soam flowers blooming,
Peacefully blow in the wind,
Goodnight Soam flowers.

Middle School:

Jaden Jackson

Petals soft and bright,
Blooming in the sun's warm light,
Flowers bring delight.

Rozlyn Rossel

Yellow daisies bloom,
Orange butterflies singing,
Yellow daises dance.

Jozette Biarco

White daisies swaying,
The black spiders dance all night,
Butterflies singing.

High School:

Alayna Mark

Exhilarating,
My heart blooms with the blossoms,
Beautiful hashan

Evelyn Enos

Heat and drought test us,
Akimel O'odham endure,
Strong roots anchor us.

Anjheleka W.

To grow is to learn,
To learn is to blossom but,
To blossom takes strength.

College/Adult:

Willardene Lewis

Our river is here.
Its gushing sound still heals me.
Desert plants still bloom.

Haili Trevino Gonzales

Kui Hyosik Masad
The sweet scedagi viohog; yum
Indigenous land.

Marek Kozubek

The morning jogging,
Through a flowering meadow,
Spring scent of her hair.

*Poems will be display in the Gila River Fitness Path in Sacaton. Poems will be displayed in planters that have been painted by talented Gila River Community Members. Planters/Poems will be displayed after construction on the fitness path has been completed in July. Announcement will be made when display is live.
Thank you all that have participated.